

Natalie Kim Memorial Philadelphia Orchestra Golf Classic October 1, 2024

Please join us for the Natalie Kim Memorial Philadelphia Orchestra Golf Classic on October 1st at Applebrook Golf Club.

All proceeds will benefit The Philadelphia Orchestra including their award-winning education and community initiatives that engage over 50,000 students, families, and community members.

You will have the rare opportunity to play Applebrook, a signature course designed by the renowned golf course architect Gil Hanse.

The day will include golf with a caddy, lunch, awards reception, exciting contests including the chance to win a new Mercedes from Mercedes Benz of West Chester, plus team prizes, player gift package and more. Event day activities feature a putting contest to win VIP Trip for Two to an Eagles Away Game, $1 Million Shot for every team and unique Drone Golf Ball Drop!

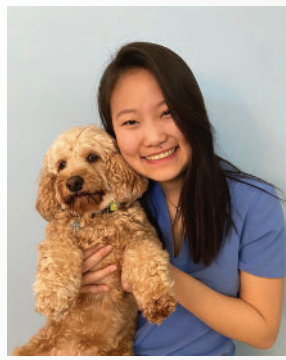

We expect an early sellout so register now.

Thanks to Our Title Sponsor

The Presenting Sponsor for this event is the Central Committee of The Philadelphia Orchestra

About Natalie

On October 24, 2023, Natalie Kim, the daughter of David Kim, concertmaster of The Philadelphia Orchestra, passed away from a brain tumor. Natalie was born in 2000 in Wynnewood, PA. In 2018, she graduated as the salutatorian from Delaware County Christian School, then went on to earn a bachelor's degree in chemistry at Swarthmore College. Natalie was a lifelong violinist and violist, serving as co-concertmaster of the Delaware County Youth Orchestra and Principal Violist of the Swarthmore Symphony Orchestra. In the fall of 2023, Natalie's lifelong dream was realized when she matriculated at the University of Pennsylvania School of Veterinary Medicine. She is survived by her parents David and Jane, as well as her younger sister, Maggie.
